Hogs—Keeping of. (Ord. June 24, 1912.)

SECTION 1. The select and common councils of the city of Philadelphia do ordain, That it is hereby made unlawful and declared to be a nuisance to keep hogs or swine in any part of the city of Philadelphia except within the limits hereinafter described: Provided, That this section shall not apply to hogs or swine kept at any licensed slaughter-house for a period not exceeding five days, for the purpose of being killed for use as food. The limits within which hogs or swine may lawfully be kept in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be as follows:

1. In that portion of the city between Penrose Avenue and Thirty-first Street, north on Thirty-first Street to Maiden Lane, and on Maiden Lane west to the Schuylkill River.

2. In that portion of the city between the Delaware River and a line running from the Back Channel along the east house line of Eighth Street north to the south house line of Packer Street; thence east along the south house line of Packer Street to Fifth Street, north on Fifth Street to Johnston Street, along Johnston Street east to Stampers Lane, from Stampers Lane to Oregon Avenue, and from Oregon Avenue to the Delaware River.

3. Between the city line at the southern boundary of the city and a line beginning at the intersection of Darby Creek and the south house line of Eighty-seventh Street; thence along the south house line of Eighty-seventh Street to Church Creek; thence along Church Creek to the south house line of Eighty-first Street; thence along the south house line of Eighty-first Street to the east house line of Ashwood Avenue; thence along the east house line of Ashwood Avenue to the south side of Jones Lane; thence along the south side of Jones Lane to the east line of Laycock Avenue; thence along the east line of Laycock Avenue to the south line of Powers Lane; thence along the south line of Powers Lane to the right of way of the Chester branch of the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad; thence along said right of way to the south side of Sixty-seventh Street; thence east along the south side of Sixty-seventh Street to the west side of the Schuylkill River.

4. Within the limits of the city east of Bath Street, south of Bristol Street and north of Pacific Street, in the forty-fifth ward.

5. Within the limits of the twenty-first, twenty-second, thirty-fifth, forty-first, and forty-second wards: Provided, That in no part of any of the above-described territory shall hogs or swine be kept within half a mile of any church, schoolhouse, or hospital.

SEC. 2. It is hereby made unlawful and declared to be a nuisance to keep hogs or swine in any part of the city of Philadelphia excepting in a sanitary manner and so as not to be prejudicial to the health of the community.

SEC. 3. Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance, or committing a nuisance as herein defined, shall be liable to a penalty of $25 for each offense, and to an additional penalty of $5 for each day during which such violation or the continuation of such nuisance may be persisted in after not less than 10 days' written notice from the board of health to abate the same, to be recovered as fines and penalties of like amount are now by law recoverable.

SEC. 4. All ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent herewith be, and the same are hereby, repealed.

Dead Animals—Disposal of—Bone Boiling Establishments. (Reg. Bd. of H., Feb. 9, 1912.)

1. Bone boiling establishments or depositories for dead animals shall be conducted apart from and be completely isolated from any of the operations of slaughtering animals or preparing for human food.

2. No building or buildings shall be erected, constructed, or used for bone boiling establishments or depositories for dead animals until after plans thereof have been sub-
